

Do not overturn the Do Not Call Law in NJ. The telephone should not be used for canvassing - it is annoying and a waste of time. Companies who do this type of soliciting should know they are wasting their good money. Money that takes away from other resources their sales department can utilize.